Real estate & construction

The majority of our spaces are leased directly from landlords including many well-known institutional owners and REITs. Breather provides landlords with a unique building amenity to attract and retain tenants and increase revenue per square foot.

Our construction and in-house interior design teams work together to create custom solutions for every Breather location, ensuring a seamless experience from end-to-end.

HOW IT WORKS

Browse, book, be productive

Browse through spaces all over the world, and book directly on the desktop or mobile app—and you're in!

Live availability times, clear pricing, flexible cancellation policy and last-minute booking options make the decision even simpler.

breather.com/browse

Invite your whole team

Book, and receive an invite once your reservation is confirmed. Users receive a calendar invite, which can easily be shared with meeting attendees or colleagues.

breather.com/offsites

Privacy is our priority

Prior to the reservation start time, a unique access code for entrance to the space is delivered to the booker and confirmed attendees on their mobile devices.
