

We are Target's Consumer IoT team, based in Silicon Valley.

Our innovative work changes the lives of millions of our guests via smart, connected products.

We are decisive.

We take smart risks and make bold decisions.

We nurture curiosity. We learn best by doing, iterating and teaching each other.

We stay positive. We are solution-oriented when faced with challenges.

We value openness. We are transparent in how we work and talk.

We work hard and have fun.

With these qualities, we strive to impact the Enterprise, today and tomorrow.
