OLD EXCHANGE
& PROVOST DUNGEON

*THE CARRIAGE RIDE
& PRIVATE DINNER*

A carriage will transport you back a few hundred years, and from the hotel to The Old Exchange, built from 1767–1771. You will tour the Old Exchange and see where confiscated tea was held during the American Revolution. You'll also tour the Provost Dungeon where 120 prisoners were held, including the feared pirate Blackbeard.

There will be hors d'oeuvres and cocktails leading into dinner in the Grand Hall where George Washington enjoyed parties in the late 1700s.

WHAT'S THE ATTIRE?

Dress business casual and comfortable. Jeans or khakis. You might need a light jacket after the sun goes down.
